Response Before Novel	The Great Gatsby	Response after Reading the Novel
	Would you marry for money?
	Do you think other social classes are better than you?
	Would you ever knowingly commit a crime?
	Does a college degree make you more socially accepted?
	Is there a circumstance in which adultery should be allowed?
	Are people with money happier than people without money?
	Have you ever been misunderstood and been unable to correct the misunderstanding?
	Does the end justify the means? (If the goal is really important, is it justifiable to do whatever must be done to achieve the goal?)
	Is it acceptable to watch others and mimic their behavior?
	Should we conform to society's rules just to feel accepted?
	Can you ever recover from a bad first impression?
	When one comes by wealth illegally, do you believe he or she is very likely to pay for it in the end?
	Are people who live in big cities in Eastern America are sophisticated, while people who live in Midwestern cities are simple and innocent?
	Is there a difference between a family that has been wealthy for generations and one which was poor until just recently (old money vs. new money)?
